

MIDSTATE MACHINE

JOB POSTING

Date: August 28, 2020

Position Title: Finisher – Maine Location

Reports to: Trevor Leathers

Shift: Monday thru Friday – 5 am – 3:30 p.m.

The Finisher is primarily responsible for preparing machined components for shipment through finishing processes.

Principal Accountabilities:

1. Removes burrs or excess metal from machined parts, using files, sandpaper, emery cloth, or grinding machines.
2. Perform finishing operations on customer components, with strict adherence to customer specifications, drawings and routings.
3. Manually stamps, engraves, and marks components as required with part numbers, heat numbers, serial numbers, vendor codes and any other information deemed necessary or required by customer specifications.
4. Loads and unloads materials, parts, or products onto or from pallets, skids, conveyors or trucks, manually or using mechanical equipment.
5. Lifts metal parts or stock onto machines, manually or using hoists, and secures them on machine table, in chuck, or holding fixtures, using wrenches to assist in setting up machine.
6. Prepares documentation for Quality Control or Shipping departments including, but not limited to serial number listings.
7. Performs other duties or functions as requested by Tooling Supervisor or Shift Supervisor.

Qualifications:

- Previous experience with hand tools (grinding machines, files, sandpaper, engravers, stampers, etc.) in Manufacturing environment.

Midstate Machine is EOE/Minorities/Females/Vet/Disability Employer

MIDSTATE MACHINE

JOB POSTING

- Previous Fork Truck experience is a plus. Experience using slings and loading/unloading materials is a plus.
- Must be able to follow directions and instructions and follow safety protocol.

If you are interested in this position, please upload a via the website at www.midstatemachine.com under the Life at MSM and Careers tab or feel free to email directly to web-resumes@midstateusa.com.